

MR. A. K. CHANDA'S NEW POST

Official Confirmation

"The Times of India" News Service
NEW DELHI, December 16:

The President has appointed Mr. A. K. Chanda, Secretary of the Ministry of Production, as Comptroller and Auditor-General of India in succession to Mr. V. Narahari Rao when the latter relinquishes office, it was officially announced in a press communique from Rashtrapati Bhavan today.

Mr. Narahari Rao is due to retire in August 1954, but Mr. Chanda will leave the Production Ministry at the end of February next year and join the Office of the Auditor-General as Officer on special duty.

Congressmen Expelled

"The Times of India" News Service
RISHIKESH, December 16:

Twenty-four persons have been expelled from the Congress in Saharanpur District after being found guilty of either opposing the Congress nominees or contesting as independent candidates during the last civic elections.